INTRODUCTION

On October 1 1956 the National Library of Medicine came into being as a result of enactment of Public Law 941 84th Congress (The National Library of Medicine Act) At the same time the former Armed Forces Medical Library was transferred to and absorbed by the new Library Consequently the present volume is the third volume of the Catalog to be issued under the new name. Data on the previous volumes of this series are available on the verso of the title page, opposite this page

This current annual volume of the NLM Catalog supplements the 1950–1954 quinquennial edition, the 1955 volume of the AFML Catalog and the 1956 and 1957 volumes of the NLM Catalog The Catalog together with the Current List of Medical Literature serves as a continuation of the Library's bibliographical record begun in 1880 with the advent of the Index-Catalogue of the Library of the Surgeon General's Office

The publication of the Catalog is a joint operation of the Card Division and the Catalog Maintenance Division of the Library of Congress and the Catalog Division of the National Library of Medicine.

The Library wishes to record its gratitude to the Library of Congress for its continuous encouragement and support, and for the opportunity to participate with the Library of Congress in this published bibliographical record.

EXPLANATORY NOTES

1 SCOPE

a. Part one Authors reproduces in book form all the cards prepared for the NLM card catalogs in the twelve months period November 1957–October 1958, for materials of medical interest. It includes cards for currently received materials and for titles from the old collections which were recataloged during the period regardless of date of publication.

b. Part two, Subjects, is more limited in scope because of the Library's policy of assigning subject headings only to titles published within the last twenty five years (i e., since 1930) Exceptions are made in the application of this terminal date in the case of 1) important reference and historical materials 2) biographies and bibliographies 3) statistical documents and 4) works about institutions, such as hospitals, clinics, etc.

2. POLICIES

The following information on the Library's cataloging policies and practices is included in the expectation that it will increase the usability of the data presented in the Catalog

a. Cataloging Policies

(1) The A L A Cataloging Rules for Author and Title Entries is accepted as the Library's code, except that

(a) Each publication of a corporate body is entered under the name of the body in use at the time the publication was issued.

(b) Each periodical is entered under the title in use at the time of issue.

(c) Civilian hospitals are entered under the place in which they are located and not directly under the name of the hospital Cross references from the name of the hospital to the place name have been omitted from the printed Catalog

(d) The explanatory phrases "Spurious and doubtful works and "Supposed author" have been eliminated as part of the author heading

(2) The Library of Congress Rules for Descriptive Cataloging govern the descriptive cataloging detail for modern publications, except that a number of simplifications have been adopted.

(3) The Rules for Descriptive Cataloging have been modified for pre-1801 books and Americana titles in order to provide additional needed information.

(4) Standard titles are utilized in cataloging pre-1801 editions of early authors when the number of editions with varying titles makes this desirable.

(5) Multiple added entries for joint authors, editors, translators, etc., of works published before 1801 have been eliminated by noting on representative added entry cards that other editions are listed under the main entry (Example Brown, John, 1735–1788.)

(NOTE Occasionally these references may appear to be misleading in a single issue of the Catalog because only one edition will be found under the main entry the other editions having appeared in previous issues of the Catalog Conversely no added entries may be found in a given issue (although they may be traced on the main entry card) because added entry cards with edition notes have appeared in previous issues. In searching for early printed works, therefore, the full sequence of issues of the Catalog should be consulted.)

b. Classification Policies

(1) Medical titles are classified by the National Library of Medicine Classification (second edition, 1956)

(2) The Library of Congress classification schedules are used freely for titles in medicosocial, medicoeconomic, and other borderline fields. The class numbers, however are not used in as much detail as in the Library of Congress, and often only representative numbers have been selected from the full schedules for NLM use.

c. Subject Heading Policies

(1) The subject headings used are based on the list developed for the Library's subject card catalog They differ somewhat from those used in other libraries. These differences are often due to simplifications, e. g., MEDICAL LEGISLATION instead of MEDICAL LAWS AND LEGISLATION COMPLICATIONS instead of COMPLICATIONS AND SEQUELAE.

(2) Generally speaking geographic subdivisions consist of the name of the country or the name of the state or province if American or Canadian.

Further subdivision by city or county is made only where justified by the number of titles under that particular subject.

(3) Uniform subject heading punctuation, consisting of a dash, is used even in the case of inverted adjectival headings, such as NERVOUS SYSTEM—AUTONOMIC and ENCEPHALITIS—EPIDEMIC.

3. ARRANGEMENT

a. Part one, Authors

(1) Entries included in Part one, Authors are arranged in alphabetical order with the following exceptions

(a) An author-title added entry follows the same author title as a main entry

(b) An author added entry follows all author title entries under that name.

(c) When standard titles are used, the entries under the author's name are divided into two groups 1) pre-1801 publications (with standard titles) and 2) editions published after 1800 (without standard titles) Where necessary explanatory cards and date guides are inserted to clarify the arrangement of entries.

b Part two Subjects

Subjects and subject subdivisions are arranged in a straight alphabetical sequence.

Anatomical description of the arteries of the human body. Illustrated by several coloured engravings, selected and reduced from the icones of Haller. Exhibiting the parts as they appear on dissection. From the last London edition. Corrected and improved. Boston: Printed by Thomas Wait and Co., for the proprietor.
[illegible] plates. [illegible] cm.
Josiah Flagg named as proprietor in the Massachusetts District copyright statement (slip pasted on verso of title page). Flagg engraved the plates on wood after the steel engravings of the London edition, which was first published in 1800 under title: Anatomical plates of the arteries of the human body, with concise explanations [illegible] appeared in 1813 under the present title. The plates were reduced copies of selected plates from the larger Icones anatomicae of Haller.
The American edition was prepared under the supervision of [illegible] Warren, who improved the references to the plates, revised in part the descriptions of the great arteries, and added the general description of the arteries (p. [illegible]). The "Account of the arteries" was derived from Bichat. Cf. "Advertisement," signed: John C. Warren.
